

May Teacher Feature

Tony Savarino

Tony is a dynamic and upbeat guitar instructor offering over twenty years experience. He has taught countless students a myriad of styles including: rock (classic and modern), metal, pop, jazz, blues, roots, country, bluegrass and western swing. He has appeared in: Vintage Guitar Magazine, Guitar World, Guitar Player For The Practicing Musician, The Boston Globe, and The Boston Phoenix publications. In addition to his position at Mass Ave Music, Tony has also taught courses at Berklee College of Music.

May Dates:

- 5/3 Peter Moore w/
Brian Eno Tribute
@ Bowery
Underground
NYC
- 5/7 Peter Moore w/
Sarah Rabdau @
U.U.C. – Croton,
NY
- 5/8 Jeremy Lyons w/
Busted Jug Band
@ Sally O'Briens
- 5/13 Charles Hansen
w/ Gymnasium @
Lizard Lounge
- 5/17 Peter Moore –
John Powhida's
50th Birthday @
Lizard Lounge
- 5/22 Jeremy Lyons w/
Mean Black
Spider @ Plough
and Stars
- 5/27 Morgan Evans-
Weiler w/
Ordinary Affects @ Third Life
Studio

Important Dates

Mass Ave Music

Spring Recital

May 15th @ Clarendon Hill Presbyterian Church
2-4pm

Somerville Porchfest

May 21st @ Mass Ave Music/Stubblebine Lutherie
12-2pm

Featuring the Mass Ave Music All-Stars

Group Classes:

Our violin and music theory group classes have been very successful. What other group classes or ensembles are you interested in? Let us know.

massavemusic@gmail.com

Student of the Month:

April student of the month is Nayana Cameron

"Nayana is a very talented young piano student who is always eager to improve and learn. She comes to piano lessons with great energy and a positive attitude. Nayana has been broadening her repertoire with both classical and pop music. Way to go Nayana!"

- Nomin Samdan (piano)

